Dr. Brad Labrecque, Owner, Cedar Dental Center

Dr. Labrecque is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan. He received his Dental Degree in 1983 after completing a BSC with Honours in Biochemistry. Immediately after graduation Dr. Labrecque opened his first private practice in Humboldt, Saskatchewan, where he remained for six years. In 1989, he moved to Kamloops, BC where he currently resides and operates a general practice with his focus on lasers and minimally invasive dentistry. He has actively used lasers in his practice for the last 12 years, being one of the first dentists in Canada to incorporate the Waterlase in private practice. Dr. Labrecque is a founding member of the World Congress of Microdentistry. He received his Mastership with the WCLI in Laser Dentistry in 2009.
